

TOWARDS THE SOCIAL CONSTRUCTION OF NEW LABOUR MARKETS

Interdisciplinary Reflections on the Changing World of Work

International Conference

Workshop #1 | Thursday 24th November 2022 | 3.45-5.45 PM*Venue: Palazzo dei contratti e delle manifestazioni – SALA MOSAICO
Via Petrarca 10, Bergamo (Italy)Industrial Relations and Collective Bargaining in Challenging and New Labour Markets*Patrice Jalette, Florence Blain (Université de Montréal)*The Labour Shortage in Quebec and its Impact on Labour Relations and Union Life: Results of a Survey of Employer and Union StakeholdersRiccardo Maraga (Università Sapienza di Roma)*The Role of Collective Bargaining in Regulating the Labour Market in Sectors with a High Number of Seasonal Jobs: between Innovation and TraditionValentina Franca (University of Ljubljana), Ana Ribeiro (Universidade Católica Portuguesa)*How do Academics and Research Staff Bargain? The Cases of Slovenia and PortugalJosé Pedro Oliveira Pinto (Universidade Católica Portuguesa)*Social Concertation Agreement to Tackle Precariousness: A Critical Analysis of the 2019 Amendments to the Portuguese Labour CodeValeria Pulignano, Karol Muszynski (KU Leuven), Maite Tapia (Michigan State University)*It Takes Three to Tango: Bargaining Power in Online Freelancing Platform WorkScientific Organisation:Ilaria Armaroli (ADAPT Senior Research Fellow)