

TOWARDS A WORKLESS SOCIETY?

An Interdisciplinary Reflection on the Changing Concept of Work and its Rules in Contemporary Economies

International Conference

PLENARY SESSION #2 | Friday 1st December 2023 | 11.30 am-1.00 pm

Venue: Centro Congressi Giovanni XXIII – SALA ALABASTRO

Viale Papa Giovanni XXIII 106, Bergamo (Italy)

TOWARDS A WORKLESS SOCIETY?

PERSPECTIVES OF LABOUR RELATIONS IN A GLOBAL SCENARIO, PARTICULARLY IN THE GLOBAL SOUTH

Shingou Ikeda (Japan Institute for Labour Policy and Training)

Changing employment society in Japan: expansion of service economy and middle-aged workers

Eleonora Peliza (ARTRA, Pontificia Universidad Católica Argentina)

The working poor phenomenon in Latin America: causes, factors and dynamics. Policies needed to provide income guarantees

Evance Kalula (University of Cape Town)

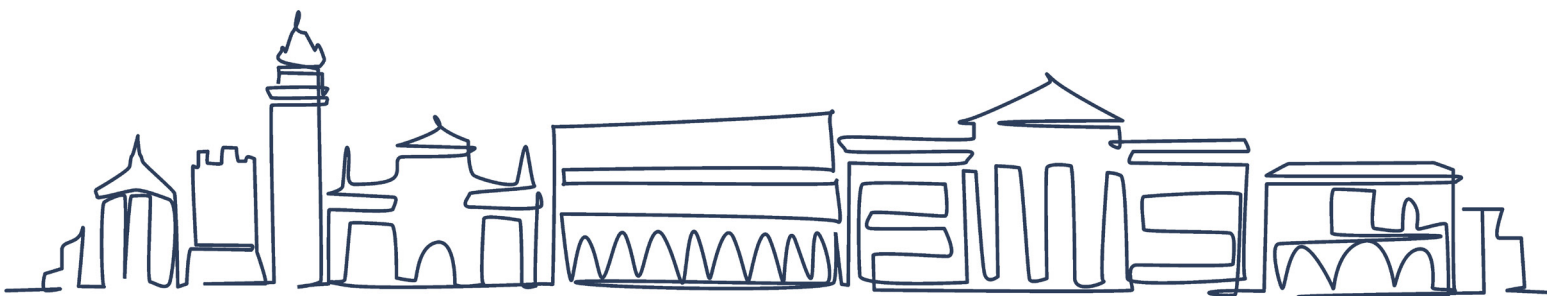

Facing up to the crisis of representation: the role of collective bargaining and social dialogue beyond traditional labour market dimensions

Anil Verma (University of Toronto)

The socio-tech labour policy challenge: decent work in the informal economy in emerging economies

Scientific Organisation:

Manfred Weiss (Goethe-Universität Frankfurt am Main)

@adaptland

PARTNERS AND SUPPORTERS

internationalconference.adapt.it

#ADAPTConference2023

