

What Do Workers Want, Today?

An Interdisciplinary Reflection on Representation, Industrial Relations and Labour Law

International Conference

CONCURRENT WORKSHOP #4 | Wednesday 4 December | 5.00-6.30 pm

Venue: Centro Congressi Giovanni XXIII – STUCCHI room (1st floor)

Viale Papa Giovanni XXIII 106, Bergamo (Italy)

PRIN INSPIRE: What Do Workers Want, Today? Representation and (or?) Participation in a Changing World

Massimiliano De Falco (University of Udine)
What do workers want, today? Some insights from recent labour market dynamics for the occupational well-being

Matilde Biagiotti (University of Bologna Alma Mater)
Training as a tool for the inclusion of vulnerable workers: what role for trade unions?

Caterina Pareo (University of Pisa)
The key role of workers' participation in the regulation of AI

Angelo Delogu (University of Urbino Carlo Bo)
Participatory tools, work inclusion and (possible?) responsibility: the role of workers' representatives for health and safety

Gianluigi Pezzini (University of Milan)
Organizational participation of invulnerable workers: participatory governance in Italian universities

Scientific Organisation:
Anna Zilli (University of Udine)

Discussants:
Frederic Guiomard (Toulouse 1 Capitole University)
Ljubinka Kovacevic (University of Belgrade)

Organising Committee:
Prof. Marina Brollo (University of Udine)
Prof. Pasqualino Albi (University of Pisa)
Prof. Alessandro Boscati (University of Milan)
Prof. Emanuele Menegatti (University of Bologna Alma Mater)
Prof. Paolo Pascucci (University of Urbino Carlo Bo)

Additional details: workshop devoted to the dissemination of the scientific results of the research Project of Relevant National Interest (PRIN_2020CJL288) INSPIRE – Inclusion strategies through participation in workplaces for organizational well-being.

Principal Investigator: Prof. Marina Brollo (University of Udine)

 @adaptland

 #ADAPTConference2024

internationalconference.adapt.it

PARTNERS AND SUPPORTERS